FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEMISSISSIPPI STATE PERSONNEL BOARD APPROVES
ELLISVILLE STATE SCHOOL REDUCTION-IN-FORCE

November 21, 2013 Jackson, Miss - The Mississippi State Personnel Board today approved a request from Ellisville State School, which is part of the Mississippi Department of Mental Health for a reduction-in-force affecting seven (7) filled positions.

According to the Department of Mental Health, this action is necessary due to a shortage of funds. The reduction-in-force will be limited to the McComb Day Center.

“The Mississippi State Personnel Board evaluated the request from the Department of Health and determined that the agency followed the proper policies and procedures for implementing its reduction-in-force based on shortage of funds,” said Deanne Mosley, Executive Director of the Mississippi State Personnel Board.

The Mississippi State Personnel Board serves more than 30,000 public employees and 130 state agencies, and also provides administrative support for the Personal Service Contract Review Board and Employee Appeals Board. For more information, please visit <http://www.mspb.ms.gov>.
